

Letter of recommendation

For Dávid Horov

I am writing to express my appreciation for your service during your tenure with us.

From the beginning, you demonstrated a high level of professionalism that positively contributed to our team. Your constructive collaboration and ability to quickly adapt to our work environment, especially dealing with project ambiguities, was commendable.

From a technical standpoint, your expertise proved to be vital for our team and product. You have not only driven significant advancements, but also played a central role in boosting the overall quality of our codebase and our frontend.

What I particularly appreciated was the structure of your contributions. You kept your inputs concise and directly relevant, which considerably eased our review process and helped us progress smoothly.

Your code was clean and well-organized, reflecting your technical skills and attention to detail.

If given the opportunity, I would have been pleased to continue working with you. Once again, thank you for your contributions.

May 24, 2024
Berlin, Germany

Roberto Jiménez Sánchez
Staff Software Engineer (IT Engineering)
rjimenezsanchez@tesla.com